

Commercial Litigation and Insolvency

You need timely, clear and complete explanations which address all aspects of a matter. You need prompt responses to inquiries, and, as matters proceed, you will need regular reporting until a resolution is achieved.

Dale & Lessmann LLP offers skilled and experienced litigation counsel dedicated to achieving timely and effective resolutions in commercial disputes. Practical and knowledgeable advice, skilful dispute resolution techniques and, if necessary, effective courtroom advocacy are the tools of our trade.

Our litigation group acts regularly for clients in a broad range of businesses: banking and financial services, commercial real estate, manufacturing, retailing, automotive parts manufacturing and information technology. Our clients include financial institutions, secured and unsecured lenders, trade creditors, land owners and developers, commercial landlords and tenants, public and private corporations resident in Canada, the US and abroad, directors, shareholders, employers and employees. We also provide experienced counsel to creditors, debtors and insolvency professionals in corporate and personal insolvency matters, including security enforcement, receiverships, restructuring, proposals and bankruptcies.

Clients can expect direct access to seasoned counsel whenever they need it.
